Atlanta, GA — February 7, 2026

The APEX Museum will host a book signing and photographic exhibition, SOS: Signs of Struggle, on Saturday, February 7, 2026, from 2:00 PM to 4:00 PM at the APEX Museum in Atlanta. This event is FREE and open to the public.

SOS: Signs of Struggle is a moving photographic exhibition that brings the community together through more than 60 years of nonviolent protest for human rights and social justice. The exhibition documents pivotal moments from civil rights marches and anti-war demonstrations to the women's movement and today's Black Lives Matter protests, highlighting the power of everyday people united for change.

Rooted in the principles of nonviolence taught and practiced by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., the exhibition invites reflection, dialogue, and continued commitment to justice. Through these images, visitors are encouraged to connect past struggles with present movements and honor the enduring legacy of collective action.

The event offers an opportunity for community members to experience the exhibition, participate in the book signing, and engage in a shared space of remembrance and unity. The APEX Museum continues its mission to preserve and interpret history and culture from the African American perspective through programming that educates, inspires, and empowers.
